

Trellis Residential Receives 2015 PRISM Award

Trellis Residential Recognized by the Charleston Home Builders Association at the 27th Annual PRISM Awards

Mount Pleasant, S.C. (Nov. 20, 2015) - Trellis Residential was recently honored with a 2015 PRISM Award by the Charleston Home Builders Association. The 27th Annual PRISM Awards were held on Friday, November 6th at the Hyatt Place Charleston and honored all winners with a dinner and reception.

Trellis Residential won a PRISM Award in the category of Best Product - Single Family Homes - Detached. This award was received for Trellis Residential's work on a custom home located in the Old Village of Mount Pleasant in the $650,000 to $700,000 price range.

"We are very honored to be recognized by the Charleston Home Builders Association. It's humbling to be included in the ranks with some of the area's best builders," said Jeff Pritchard, owner of Trellis Residential.

ABOUT THE PRISM AWARDS

The 2015 PRISM Awards are granted by the Charleston Home Builders Association (CHBA). The CHBA formed in 1988 and is a 501c-6 non-profit organization. It's purpose is to promote homeownership in the Charleston, S.C. area through education, networking, and community outreach. The PRISM Awards recognize excellence in the field of homebuilding, sales, marketing and promotion of new homes. For more information on CHBA, please visit <http://www.hbacharleston.com/>.
